

Estate Plan Strategies, LLC

Steven Spewak Named One of St. Louis' Top Attorneys by Small Business Monthly

Spewak honored for work with small business owners will be featured in February 2012 issue

Steven Spewak

ST. LOUIS, MO -- Steven B. Spewak, J.D., L.L.M., Senior Principal Attorney with Estate Plan Strategies, LLC, has been named One of The Top Attorneys in St. Louis that can help businesses by Small Business Monthly magazine. Spewak will be featured in the February 2012 edition of the magazine.

“This is a great honor especially since all nominations for this award are made by your clients and peers,” Spewak said. “Many of our clients are small business owners and executives, and our staff is excited they have selected me for recognition as one of St. Louis’ Top Attorneys.”

Spewak founded Estate Plan Strategies, LLC, in 2001. He has been engaged in the private practice of law as an attorney for more than 25 years. Prior to starting Estate Plan Strategies, he spent many years as a partner with prominent St. Louis law firms where he concentrated his practice in the field of estate planning.

In addition to his work with his legal practice, Spewak has authored numerous articles in professional journals and regularly teaches continuing education courses for CPAs, insurance professionals and financial advisors on estate planning, business succession planning and asset protection. He is a co-author of the authoritative book on estate planning, Love Money, Control: Reinventing Estate Planning, published by Quantum Press and a contributing author Estate Planning Strategies, published by Wealth Builders Press, LLC. Spewak is a member of the Probate and Trust Committees of The Missouri Bar and The Bar Association of Metropolitan St. Louis, as well as a member of the Wealth Counsel network of estate planning attorneys.

Spewak’s educational background includes obtaining a Bachelor of Science degree in accounting from Drake University, a law degree from the University of Missouri at Kansas City, graduating “with distinction”, and a Masters of Laws (LL.M.) in taxation from George Washington University.

Estate Plan Strategies focus is to work with clients to preserve wealth and protect assets while achieving personal and family objectives, minimizing taxes and providing comfort and peace of mind. Practice areas include estate planning, living trusts and wills, tax planning, asset protection, special needs planning, charitable giving, probate/estate administration, business succession planning, and elder law/Medicaid planning. For additional information visit www.estateplanmo.com or call 314-542-2210.

Steven Spewak
Estate Plan Strategies, LLC

1067 N. Mason
St. Louis, Missouri
United States 63141

E-Mail: steves@estateplanmo.com